

DISASTER PREPAREDNESS TRAINING

Presented by the Sebastopol
Community Emergency Response Team in collaboration with the Sebastopol Fire Department.

The objective of this training is to equip the average citizen with the Basic Emergency Skills needed to help sustain our neighborhoods in the event of a disaster (earthquake, severe storm, etc) when professional first responders are not immediately available.

The training is presented one night per week for 7 weeks, with classes lasting 2 ½ hours each. Classes include: Fire Safety, Light Search and Rescue, Team Organization and Disaster Medical Operations 1 & 2.

Cost: $50.00. Volunteers will receive a $50.00 gift certificate for Emergency Supplies upon completion of the full series of classes.

For further information or to sign up for the next available series, stop by the Sebastopol Fire department at the corner of Bodega Avenue and Jewell Avenue. You may also visit the Sebastopol Fire Department web page: www.ci.sebastopol.ca.us and make your way to the Disaster Preparedness and CERT section. For further details, contact Fire Chief John Zanzi at 823-8061 or jzanzi@sonic.net.

Generously sponsored by The Rotary Clubs of Sebastopol, Sebastopol Hardware, Pacatte Construction, Spyрка Electric, Bank of America, Exchange Bank, Lori Burmeyer and Skip Jirrels.
